Pathways and Protocols

Screen Canberra requires applicants to show recognition and respect when working with Indigenous people's images, knowledge and stories in the production of audiovisual material in both documentary and drama form.

The framework set out in Screen Australia's publication: Pathways and Protocols - A filmmaker's guide to working with Indigenous people, culture and concepts, will help you develop your own protocols when:

- working with Indigenous content, a film or program based on an Indigenous story, with Indigenous characters or featuring Indigenous culture in any form
- working with Indigenous people, whether as cast, extras, crew, or documentary subjects
- working in Indigenous communities, either as the subject of a film or through the use of the community as a location
- working on Indigenous lands.
